JOHN BROUGH, Of Cayahoga County. FOR LIEUT, GOVERNOR CHAS. ANDERSON. Of Montgomery County.

POR SUPREME JUDGE BOCKING H. HUNTER. Of Fairfield County. FOR AUDITOR OF STATE

JAS H GODMAN, Of Marion County. FOR TREASURER OF STATE G. VOLNEY DORSEY. Of Miami County.

POR BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS JOHN M. BARRERE, Of Highland County. UNION SENATORIAL TICKET.

For State Senator JOHN M. CONNELL UNION COUNTY TICKET. For Representative OLIVER P. LANDON

For Clerk of Court of Common Pleas JOHN D. NOURSE

For Treasprer OLIVER E. DAVIS For County Commissioner MICHAEL A. LEIST

For Recorder JOHN SEARS For Surveyor JOHN W. FLOOD

For Infirmary Director JOSEPH MEISSE

The latest news from Charleston is that Fort Sumpter is entirely demolished; and Fort Moultrie silenced. On the night of the 23d Gen. Gilmore opened fire on Charleston, and citizens were leaving in a continuous stream. Gen. Rosecrans has made a forward movement, and on the 21st commenced shelling Chattanooga

The daily papers are still full of accounts of disaffection in the South, and of enormous numbers of desertions withdrawing that support. from the Rebel army.

Remember the Great Union Basket Meeting at Lineaster on the 9th of Sabbath, who insult ministers, and who of Louisiana, said: September.

Col. John M. Connell Nominated for

It gives us great pleasure to announce that the Senatorial Convention which nated Col. John M. Connel, of the 17th O. V. I., for State Senator. Athens county claimed that this term she had the right to the Senator, and accord-and his election certain.

Great Union Basket Meeting on the 9th of September.

The County Ticket.

ully satisfied with the action of both Conventions will cheerfully and heartily endorse the result. The nominees are men of high character, of unquestioned espability, and of tried loyalty, and have, moreover, the merit of being sought by office, instead of seeking it, and tricking to obtain it.

It now roots with the Union men of the county to secure the triumph of the ticket, and to take the local government out of the hands of that party which is oppose ed to the Federal Government and to the Christian Church. There is wide-aprend disaffection in the ranks of the Vallandigham party, and untiring effort and con- hung master, who first reviewed the ren," with whom the butternuts of this stant vigilance will bring to the friends of the gov erament and Christianity a signal triumph.

school districts, with working committees in each, who comprehend a rule with the exceptions, tender mercy of Quantrell and his borthe Central Committee. The Vallandigham men are Platform of the Union Men of Fairfield. inseparable-now and forever."

Platform of the Pairfield Vallandigham-

2. Especially to the Methodist branch meant, nor make any reply to the in- worn out Abolitionist.

of the Church. 3. Insult and bitter hostility to all preach rebellion.

5. Up with the black banner of in-

We invite the attention of our readlandigham men, at a religious meeting which killed the Criftenden Comprowere not present and did not witness tute, which being only a resolution from the city.

to deliver a sermon to them on last Sab- Senators Benjamin, Slidell, Iverson, 9th of September, bath. His known ability as a minister, and the decided ground he has tohen in favor of austaining the Government, drew together a concourse of several thousand persons. But his well- tuto passed, and dispatched to their known position on the great questions States that the Crittenden Compromise before the country, also brought out was defeated. the enemies of the government and the Christian Church, who attended the stated that the Southern leaders would meeting with the avowed purpose of not have the Crittenden Compromise. raising a disturbance. They passed They might have had it if they had rethrough the meeting, during the cer- mained in the Senate and voted mon, swaggering, swearing, and distributing the Ohio Eagle, and just at the close of the benediction, raised three the Republicans." This was the condicheers for Vallandigham, followed by tion on which they would accept it! three more, louder than the first. On No, they were from the first bent upon their return to Lancaster, we are informed that a number of these men, among whom were the Editor of the Eagle, and the Vallandigham candidate for Clerk of the Court, passed the old Union, as they told General through the car in which Mr. Van An- Logan in Richmond. And as showing da sat, when they deliberately and in- further, that they did not desire comsultingly crumpled a number of copies of the Eagle in their hands and threw them at the minister

A number of those who attended the meeting in private conveyances, passed through Lancaster in the evening, cheering for Vallandigham as they passed the churches on Columbus street. and indulging in profanity and the most indecept noises.

every community, and who can be reached and suppressed only by the Caralina out of the Union by the 19th of January next, strong hand of force, we should say I pay no attention to any action saken by this body." nothing about it. But among these men were the editor of the Eagle and the present candidate of a strong party for Clerk of the Court, one of whom has an influence upon public opinion because of his position as editor, and who can the position as editor, and who can extra be southern Confederacy. You talk about repealing the personal telescopies as a concession to the doubt. Be them silten moreous, as, and it would not stop the great extra bills that we dread. Nor do we suppose that the court is not your personal extra bills that we dread. Nor do we suppose that the court is not your personal extra bills that we dread. Nor do we suppose that the court is not your personal extra bills that we dread. Nor do we suppose that the court is not your personal extra bills that we dread the consideration of the southern Etates that are now moving that makes are not doing it without due consideration. be punished by society, and the other Forone I do not dread or at all a not part of Mr. Lincola.

of whom expects the support of good to wait for them. We intend to good to wait for them. We intend to good.

Dec. 12th, Wigfill, of Texas: of whom expects the support of good men, and who can be punished by

We ask the honest men of this county, will you any longer support or Dec. Slat-After the introduction of countenance men who desecrate the the Crittenden Compromise, Benjamin, disturb religious meetings, and will you any longer act with a party which E has such mon for its loaders?

Bring every man, woman and child, Pryor, of Virginia, telegraphed met at Logan on Monday last, nomi- and avery horse, buggy and wagon to the Great Union Basket meeting on the 9th of September.

BY A YOUNG MAN.

inly gave us the man we desired, vo. viewed in the Gazette of week before ple minded, credulens ill-informed and county meeting. ting for him to a man. The Athens last, discharges another three-column eager to make a point. Hence he hops delegates registered their names at the article into the Ohio Eogle. In this are at facts stops over promises, and jumps, hotel thus: Residence-Athens. Des- ticle, with his usual juvenile assump- in the most headleng and reckless mantination -To nominate Colonel Con; tion of sagacity, he pays us the high ner, into conclusions. compliment of attributing our editori- In conclusion, we say to the young The distinguished service done his al to the pen of Rev. C. A. Van Anda, man, write again, write often. But be country, his ability as a lawyer and a "The ear marks" (of Mr. Van Anda's a little cautious about rushing into public man, and his patriotism with- style) he says, "are there unmistaka- print. Your first efforts, will necessaout conditions, render the nomination bly." Now, we simply say to the rily be crude, and, like young men, of Col. Connell a most excellent one, young man, that our editorial and the will have a smooth-faced and beardless sermon in question, are about as much appearance. But, in the course of time, slike in style as the crude articles of by diligent application and constant Fill your baskets, and come to the this young man and the magnificent effort, you will gain strength and skill, essay of Macaulay on the Policy of the and may, at some fature time, be able Romish Church. And further, that Mr. to handle an argument, provided it Van Anda has never written an article makes no resistance and is perfectly Along with the State Ticket we to-day place the Ben- for the Gazette, and that he disdains to decile. secral and county tickets. We announce ourselves notice the indecent and insulting at. tacks of Dr. Olds, or the wouthful efforts of this young man. He will go on steadily preaching the gospel, looking neither to the right nor to the left, while the minions of Satan dance and readers to the account, in another colgibber around him, and strive in vain umn, of the horrible massacre at Law-

this he adopts the logic of his great un- These men are "our Southern Breth sermon. The county must be organised by townships and capacity to connect two paragraphs, to mics, and leaving our borders to the or to connect a conclusion with the der ruffians. stricken with terror at the great aprising of the people premises from which it is drawn, rein favor of sohn Brough and the Union, and we must peats his former blunders, and his programment of September. be wide-awake, working constantly and fearing no juvenile attack upon the Passive Obe- for Brough because he is "an old worn veral others, where we drank several threats and no opposition, until they are over dience doctrine. In our former article out Democrat." Van Anda's view of this dettrine, and nominee for Supreme Judge. Which "The Union of the States-one and also to show how far Christians should is worse, to vote for a worn out Demo- of Chillicothe, took the stand, and dur- in which the following head lines apwere justified in rebelling. We shall nothing? 1. Hostility to the Christian Church a second time what Mr Van Anda is both a worn out Democrat and a and we have seldem heard a more sil- THEN BY THE BAYONETI majority of whom were killed instant-ministers of the Gospel who will not this is why we write this article) in re- tling all his life for democratic principly to the charge made by the guar- ples. 4. Hostility, also, to the Catholic dians and masters of the young man, branch of the Christian Church and to that Mr. Van Anda falsified the histothe Catholic Clergy, but for fear of los- ry of the Crittenden Conpromise and the Senatorial Convention by Athens Jefferson and Jackson, and stating that ing the Irisis and German vote, say the action of Virginia in the peace conto make the nomination by neclamation. With regard to the action of Virginia we simply repeat what we have Virginia we simply repeat what we before stated, viz: that her demands prevented the propositions of the Peace 6. Down with Christianity and up Convention from being accepted by Great Union Basket Meeting on the into them, killing and wounding scores. Meeting at Lancaster on the 6th of what Mr. Van Anda meant by her "spirit of dictation." With regard to mise was the vote on the Clark substiber of gentlemen who were present effect of adopting a substitute, and desiring to see the compromise defeated, have ever heard The Rev. C. A. Van Anda was invitstood by, refusing to vote, and allowed Wigfall, Davis, Toombs, and several others, who could have defeated the substitute by voting, hurried to the telegraph office as soon as the substi-

We also repeat what we have often Toombs stated that the South would accept it. "if tendered and sustained by sented a blank sheet of paper, and al- September. lowed them to write their own condipromise, and that they might have had the Crittenden Amendment, we quote the following declarations of Southern

Dec. 4th, O. R. Singleton, of Mis siasippi, said:
"I was not here for the purpose of making any compromiseor to patch existing difficulties."

Mr. Jones of Georgia, ditto on the same day.

Mr. Hawkins, of Florida :

Mr. Pugh, of Alabama

Dec 5th, Senator Iverson of Georgia: Sir, the Southern States that are now moving

"So far as the Union is concerned, the cold sweet of death is upon it. Your Union is now dead; your Gov-ernment is now dead. There is now in the Guil States they will be free."

of the country. Of course, they will The young man whose article we re- be new to this young man. He is sim. in Lancester some time ago—the great issues before the country, and

Remember the Great Union Basket

norWe invite the attention of our rence, in Kansas, by Quantrell's guer-This young man, from lack of argu- rillas. It is the most cold-blooded and ment, calls Mr Van Anda a liar. In horrible massacre of modern times county are in sympathy. Vailandig-The young man, still lacking the ham is in favor of withdrawing our ar-fantile attack which he has repeated. If John Brough is "worn out." it is Colonel Connell was nominated in the country. And this is precisely 9th of September.

On behalf of the loyal people of ers to a communication, published else- the Crittenden Compromiss, we repeat | Fairfield county, we tender their thanks to the hilt" upon the Government, the where, giving an account of the dis what we have often stated, and what to Jon E. Srzyknson, of Chillicothe, Administration, and the loyal people. graceful conduct of a number of Val- Mr. Van Anda stated, that the vote for his excellent and telling addresses Law and Order—A phrase used by landigham men, at a religious meeting which killed the Crittenden Compro- delivered among us, and extend to the Copperheads to express resistance. him their warm and pressing invita- to law and authority. When used in ing interrupted and delayed the organtion to visit us again. He is certainly New York, it means the "sacking and ization of the militia and volunteer mithe outrage; but the statements of our could be adopted by a majority vete; a gifted young man, one of the coming burning of houses. "The hanging and could be adopted by a majority vete; and one of the finest, mutilating of men," and the destruction of the course prescribthat the Southern men, knowing the as well as the most logical, orators we tion of Orphan Asylums.

Fill your baskets, and come to the od by the Christian people of Amanda the substitute to be adopted; and that Great Union Basket Meeting on the > Hon. Lowis B. Gunckel Rs. Nominated. ate by the Union men of the Senato- killed.

Remember the Great Union Basket separation, and if the North had pre- Meeting at Lancaster on the 9th of ca-nominated Hop. R. D. Harrison, of Springfield, for Representative. He it is a sacred institution against which ively, and each and every member was among the most active, respected, and popular members of the last Legislature, and is a most decided and un- the Kansas laws. conditional Union man. He will be returned beyond doubt, as the people of Clarke have that intelligence and patriotism which places them all on the side of the Union.

Bring every man, woman and child, by that base class of beings who infest mise." While I am up, Mr. Speaker, I may as well say in the Great Union Basket Meeting on and every horse, buggy and wagon to the 9th of September.

> The Union Basket Meeting in Pleasant. Perhaps the largest township meeting ever held in the county, certainly the largest we ever attended, was the Union Backet Meeting, held at Beery's Grove, in Pleasant township, on Thursday last. We moved out of Lancaster in a procession of some twenty buggles and wagons, and arrived at the Grove about 17 o'clock, where we found immense delegations present from Pleasant, Greenfield and Walnut townships We found the flower of all the vehicles near the speakers stand, a long wagon, "The device adjustment has passed. If you would have the present and blue. Several of our friends went through the grounds and counted the burgles and wagons present. They sould must find a way to detect it."
>
> Feyor, of Virginia, telegyaphed:
>
> Was considered by supplied and will make the present of the present and supplied and will provide transportation for said troops. The sould must find a way to detect it.
>
> Job E. Stevenson, Esq of Chillicothe, and counted the people. The Captain told them how of the grounds and clothing; the Grove of the grounds and counted who is the Grove of the first interface and Madison, to the number when not in use to preserve and return the same in good order. He will also see that subsistance for said camps, as rived we found our passage to the brown dark in the grounds and counted the burgles and wagons present. They numbered 326 on the ground, besides a number in the farm yards around the Grove. This is, by actual count, over one hundred more than attended of the grounds.
>
> Characteresk and Madison, to the number when the number of aix or eight hundred, were there when the number of aix or eight hundred, were there with their families, and when we arrived we found our passage to the brown dark in the grounds and counted the burgles, and when we arrived we found our passage to the brown dark in the service of the unit of all the same in good order. He will also see that subsistance for said camps, as required by law, is supplied, and will provide transportation for said troops.
>
> 6th. Every officer, non-commission of the Hen william the service of the section of the provide transportation for said troops.
>
> 6th. Every officer, non-commission of the Hen william the service of the provide transportation for said troops.
>
> 6th. Every officer, manuface, but we found our passage to the brown and the provide transportation for said troops.
>
> 6th. Every officer, non-commission of the Hen william the service of the the with the provide transportation for said troops.
>
> 6th. Every officer, nonthe great Vallandigham meeting held

Captain STINCHCOMB immediately tock the stand, and for more than two hours kert the vast crowd exclaiming. laughing and chearing. He related many interesting incidents of Army life, and told them how the brave boys in the field endured hardships, fought, suffered and hoped and how they despised the peace encaks of the North. He assured them that instead of the officers controlling the sentiment and vote of soldiers, the boys compelled the officers to go with them. He held up the Copperheads who are controlling the Democratic organization of this county, with one hand while he stripped them with the other, showing that the Member of Congress from this Dis- ket Meeting at Lancaster on the 9th of disinterested officers, will be appointed trict, Judge of the Common Pleas, the September. Meeting at Lancaster on the 9th of Sep | editor of the party organ, the Prosecuting Attorney, and a number of others a law passed by the rebel Legislature of of each company, battalion and regiwho are clinging to the skirts of the Tennessee on the 28th of June, 1861 .- ment, including the temporary organorganization with the hope of some The first section authorizes the Gover- Board will award any prizes that may petty office, never were Democrats, and nor "to receive into the military service of be offered by the citizens of the counnever acted with the party until an op- the State all male free persons of color, be- ty where the encampment is held, or by portunity to slip into an office present- tween the ages of fifteen and fifty years." others. ed itself pies, fruits, &c. We were irresistably rebels. drawn towards the bountiful and over- Fill your baske's, and come to the

we quoted from the sermon to show Mr. But you will vote for the Copperhead number of pies-we and the rest of us. Union, a Vallandigham paper, issues a be passively obsdient, and when they crat, or a worn out Whig and Know- ing the next two hours the attentive and peardelighted audience partook of the rich- A TRIAL BY BALLOT FIRST! therefore not explain to the young man And you will vote for Dr. Olds, who est feast of all. He is a natural orator, ver-tongued and eloquent speaker .-He stated the issued in the contest, the This is a peace, and law and order But we wish to say something (and because he were himself out in bat. position of Mr. Brough, proved Val- sentiment. In response we propose speeches and propositions, and review (And if Copperheads resist.) ed the history of "arbitrary arrests," THEN USE THE BAYONET! showing those made by Washington, "By the Eternal." Vallandigham in the matter of arrests Bring every man, woman and child was not a drop in the bucket, a sand and every horse, buggy and wagon to upon the shere, and that "whether the Great Union Basket Meeting on Vallandigham lived in Heaven or suf- the 9th of September. Fill your baskets, and come to the fered in hell, what mattered that to the Fill your baskets, and come to the Peace-A term used to express "war

Free Speech A Copperhead name Free Speech-A Copperhead name change certain portions of that order; for uttering treason, encouraging desertion, advising resistance to the Government, expressing sympathy with rebellion, and for making night hideons with profenity, obscenity, and We are gratified to learn that the Vallandigham songs. When applied Hen Lewis B. Guncket, of Dayton, has to loyal men, it means they must be each of which, for the present year, been re-nominated for the State Sen- silent, or be knocked down, mobbed or the important sessions of the last Leg- journals to publish treasonable articles, the eighth day. islature, he ranked, though a young to advise resistance to the draft, to enman, among the very first members of courage mobs, to slander the soldiers, Muskingum, Noble, Monroe, Guernsey the Senate, having the respect of both and to weaken the arm of the Govern- Belmont, Jefferson, Harrison, Tuscar parties. He is an able debater, a con- ment by creating disaffection among awas, Coshocton, and Knox, and its stant worker, and a man devoted to the people. When applied to loyal and burn them, and to expel their re- will be called "Camp Licking." porters from public meetings.

Slavery -- A free institution, paramount to the nation and the government, for the protection and extension proper district, and participate in the an emergency. of which the Republic called the Uni- drill and instructions throughout the The Union men of Clarke Co. have ted States was established. According period of its duration. to an American Senator named Pugh, men are not allowed to speak nor write, thereof, will attend the camp of their without fine and imprisonment as in proper district from ten o'clock A. M.

Constitution-An instrument confer. P. M. of the eighth day of the encampring upon the South and the Demo- participate in the prescribed drill and eratic party the right to dominate and instructions. rule forever. It is opposed to unconsti- TIMES AND COMBINATIONS OF ENCAMPMENTS. tutional, which means anything done by any other than the Democratic party. "The Constitution as it is," means that camp equipage and other store supplies, it must be changed so as to divide the the different encampments for the curcountry into four sections. The latter rent year are combined in three differterm is coupled with the "Union as ent series, and will be held in the sevit was," which means the Union with eral districts, as follows, respectively, New England left out.

Fill your baskets, and come to the Great Union Basket Meeting on the from Wednesday, August 26th, to Wed-9th of September.

Union Meeting in Clearereck. We attended the Union Basket Saturday, September 12th. Meeting held at Kirkwood's grove. surprised and gratified, as we have been at all similar meetings, to find such a large attendance and such in muster with arms, equipments, amuni- get the vault open. tense interest in the success of the tion, and camp and garrison equipage, Union cause. The substantial men of not otherwise provided for, transport-the soldiers thought and felt upon the fork, as none of those articles will be assured them that Vallandigham would 7th. All volunteers will bring with get few votes in the army. Mr. Ste- them the arms and equipments receivvensonheld the crowd for several hours ed by them from the State. listening to one of his best efforts .--Men were there who had come over should bring no more baggage than twenty miles to hear him, and that they can conveniently carry by hand, large array of nodding heads, flashing as baggage wagons or drays will not be eyes, and smiling faces, told how they were convinced and delighted by his logic and his oratory. railroad depot, rendering hacks, omni-We return our thanks to Mrs. Young buses and carriages entirely unnecessaand Mrs. Williams for one of the best ry pic-nic dinners we ever ate.

Also to G. F. Hamlin, one of the most active and carnest Union men in the be required for duty. No furloughs or county, for his excellent entertainment leaves of absence will be granted in any nor Remember the great Union Bas-

ms. The Nashville Union publishes drill, discipline, deportment and police

It is perfectly proper and constitu-At the close of the Captain's address, tional for the rebels to use negroes to flict with this order is hereby revoked. the Grove suddenly became an enor- slay our brothers and friends, but it is mous dining hall, and all about under highly improper, unconstitutional, and throughout the State will greatly aid the trees and on the white cloths, lay insulting to "Southern gentlemen," for the service and their readers by giving piles of chicken, meat, bread, cakes, the Government to use negroes to shoot flowing table spread by the families of Great Union Basket Meeting on the 9th buckets of lemonade and ate quite a Bo The Perry County Democratic Dinner over, Jon E. Stevenson, Esq., call for a mass meeting at Zanesville

(and if that is denied us,) "By the Eternal."

now, however. The houses that remain standing are filled with the killed and wounded of all classes. In the landigham a Secessionist by his own THE EXECUTION OF THE LAWS! ruins of burned houses the charred remains of other victims are coustantly being found. But one hotel is stand OFFICERS MUSTER AND ENCAMP-General Head Quarters State of Ohi Adjutant General's Office, Columbus, August 15th, 1863.

muster and encampment, each to continue for and during the period of eight ment, and then and there diligently inclusive of both dates in each case:

nosday, September 2d.

Thursday, September 24th.

Second Series.

In the Third District, at Camp Lick-

8th. All who are required to attend

9th. From the opening to the close

ble necessity

carly insertion.

Quantrell:

By order:

Farther Particulars Relative to the Raid

LEAVENWORTH, August 22-From

bers some one hundred and eighty.

but its proprietor was shot.

said musters are admonished that they fore ordered-

They took all the money that could be found in the pockets of citizens or is the houses, and stole all the ladies' jewciry, even to rings on their fingers.

Jim. Lame escaped on horseback, and rallied about two hundred men with GENERAL ORDERS NO. 24. arms, and followed and overtook Quan-The recent invasion of this State havtrell twelve miles south of Lawrence, when a fight occurred but the result is unknown Quantrell is now retreating toward ed in General Orders No. 16, current series from these Headquarters, and to route. It is not expected that he will be intercepted by our forces, and will probably get away without loss.

No resistance whatever was made at Lawrence by the citizens. They were The exigencies of the times and good shot down as they ran through the streets in their night clothes, and their of the service require, and it is therebodies thrown into wells and disterns. 1st. That the following military districts be formed in this State, within

The citizens of Lawrence have been xpecting such a raid for some time. from threats Quantrill had made; and they had organized military companies for their defense, part of whom have of Montgomery and Preble. During press the liberty of a certain class of first day, until three o'clock P. M. of assurance that Quantrill would not inabandoned, and the guerrillas found The Third District will include the them entirely defenceless. counties of Licking, Fairfield, Perry, A large train left here to-day with supplies, clothing, provisions, &c., for the sufferers, and the citizens of Deavofficer muster and encampment will be enworth have opened their doors to all held on the lands of Messrs. Wilson and who may choose to come. Many have principle, and will be re-elected beyond journals it expresses the liberty to mob Davis, near the city of Newark, and availed themselves of the hospitalities, and will be cared for. The feeling among the citizens here 2nd. All officers of the militia and is very bitter against the commanders volunteers, and also all non-commissof this department and district, for beioned officers of militia of the rank of Sergeant, will attend the camp in their ing so wholly unprepared to meet such The commanding General was absent from head-quarters and did'nt know of the invasion until the destruction of 3d. The volunteer organizations in each of the military districts respect-Lawrence was complete. Everything was done, however, in egard to the movement of troops to intercept and capture Quantrell, but it of the seventh day until three o'clock Our State authorities are now taking he matter in their own hands. Colonel Jennison has been reinstated, and is n command of a new Kansas regiment and is about starting down the border with a sufficient number of troops to 4th. To secure greater facility and overcome any force that the enemy can more direct accountability in the issue. bring against him, and if he is not inuse, care and transportation of arms, terfered with by any commanding offior, the raid into Kansas will end with he present one.

The men comprising Quantrell's force are principally those guerrillas who have been robbing and murdering along the border for the past six months with but little opposition, and In the Sixth District, at Camp Greene, have had ample time to prepare everom Wednesday, August 26th, to Wedrything that would insure success.— They are probably now safe in Missouri with their plunder, and quietly ing, from Saturday, September 5th, to at their homes as good Union citizens. Saturday, September 12th. The loss at Lawrence is not less than In the Fifth District, at Camp Wayne. two millions, and will fall heavily on near Oakland, on last Friday, and were from Thursday, September 17th, to New York and Lawrence merchants. Two banks were robbed of every dol-5th. The Quartermaster General will lar, and a third escaped only because immediately take steps to provide said the heat wasso great the rebels could'nt issued by the Quartermaster-Geneay be affected, and near the modes. Texture to the modes of the modes present or absent, whether he changes his resist or abscourse, the rights of the United States as him are accured; and it is only by performance duty to the country, that he will escape the liabil ted as a criminal. gned) "WILLIAM WHITING. July 10, 1801-18-4w

CIRCULAR No. 47.

Motice

of an encampment, the whole time of every one in attendance under orders will case except upon the most indispensa-Beery, Henry Miller, Jr. son of Daniel B. Miller, de-cased, Solomon Welty and Abraham Welty, and other defendants. The object and prayer of which petition is that on the $2,000 charged to said plantiff by the will of Abraham Miller late of said county, decased, and by said will made a lion on the following lands and tenements devised to him in said will structe in said 10th. A Board, consisting of three by the Commandant at each camp to observe and report upon the appearance, 11th. So much of General Orders No. 16, before referred to, as is in con-12th. The publishers of newspapers so much of this order as relates to their own particular district a prominent and CHAS. W. HILL. Adit. General of Ohio.

> July 9, 1863 .- 6w15pi88 25. Notice.

itizens of Lawrence, who have arrived here for supplies and medicines, I have ceased are hereby gathered the following particulars regarding the burning of that city by The list of killed and wounded numly. The names can not all be given ing, Quantrell having spared it in consequense of his having made his home there some years ago without expense, In one case the guerrillas drove twelve men in one house, shot them July 15-15-5wpfe7. and burned the building. The inhabitants fled into ravines and bushes, and the fiends stood on the banks and fired Remember the Great Union Basket Twenty-five negro recruits were shot. September.